

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair is being flagrantly unfair in their intent to air this propaganda film, but more important, the FCC is not fulfilling it's obligation to the American people. You, the FCC, are responsible to guard the rights of Americans when it comes to the air waves being utilized by the broadcasters. It is your duty to see that fairness prevails. I, and many others, were sorely disappointed with your decision to let an individual (Mr. Murdock) acquire all the media control that he currently enjoys. When are you going to start representing ALL OF AMERICA and not just a small portion of our population?

Very sincerely,
Mary Bedinger
